DETAILED ACTION

Allowable Subject Matter

1. Claims 1-8 would be allowable if rewritten or amended to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action.

2. The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter:

The prior art, including the disclosures of Engel et al. (U.S. Patent No. 4,747,041) and Culler et al. ("Parallel Computer Architecture: A Hardware/Software Approach"), has not taught or render obvious the claimed feature of switching between a low-power mode and a normal power-mode dependent upon a global wake-up variable that indicates additions of processes to a process list (in combination with all other feature of the independent claims).

3. As allowable subject matter has been indicated, applicant's reply must either comply with all formal requirements or specifically traverse each requirement not complied with. See 37 CFR 1.111(b) and MPEP § 707.07(a).

Specification

1. The title of the invention is not descriptive. A new title is required that is clearly indicative of the invention to which the claims are directed.

The following title is suggested: "Wake-up and sleep conditions of processors in a multi-processor system".

Drawings

4. Figures 1 and 2 should be designated by a legend such as --Prior Art-- because only that which is old is illustrated. See MPEP § 608.02(g). Corrected drawings in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. The replacement sheet(s) should be labeled "Replacement Sheet" in the page header (as per 37 CFR 1.84(c)) so as not to obstruct any portion of the drawing figures. If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

5. Figure 3 is objected to because the "n" next to the line leaving component S20 appears to be misplaced. The "n" next to the line leaving component S20 should be moved next to the line leaving component S21. Corrected drawing sheets in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. Any amended replacement drawing sheet should include all of the figures appearing on the immediate prior version of the sheet, even if only one figure is being amended. The figure or figure number of an amended drawing should not be labeled as "amended." If a drawing figure is to be canceled, the appropriate figure must be removed from the replacement sheet, and where necessary, the remaining figures must be renumbered and appropriate changes made to the brief description of the several views of the drawings for consistency. Additional replacement sheets may be necessary to show the renumbering of the remaining figures. Each drawing sheet submitted after the filing date of an application must be labeled in the top margin as either "Replacement Sheet" or "New Sheet" pursuant to 37 CFR 1.121(d). If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

6. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

7. Claims 1-9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

8. Regarding claims 1, 6, 7, and 8, the claims recite the limitation "said connection line". Since the claims do not previously mention a "connection line", there is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim. Since the claims do previously mention a "connection bus", the above-mentioned limitation will be interpreted as "said connection bus" for the remainder of the examination.

9. Regarding claims 1, 6, 7, and 8, the claims recite the limitations "at least two processors" and "a separate processor". Therefore, it is unclear as to which processors are referred to in the later limitation "said processors" and, there is insufficient antecedent basis for the limitation "said processors". For the remainder of the examination, the limitation "a separate processor" will be interpreted as "a separate processor of the at least two processors" as it appears to be what the applicant intended.

10. Referring to claim 6, the claim recites the limitation "wherein said processor". There is insufficient antecedent basis for the limitation is the claim as it is unclear which of the previously mentioned processors ("Processor for use in a multi-processor computer system comprising at least two processors") is being referenced. For the remainder of the examination, the "said processor" will be interpreted as the processor which is "for use in a multi-processor computer system".

11. Referring to claim 9, the claim recites the limitation "if said methods are executed by said computer". This limitation renders the claim indefinite as it is unclear whether the program is executed on a computer.

12. Claims 2-5 are rejected for incorporating the defects of claim 1.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 101

13. 35 U.S.C. 101 reads as follows:

Whoever invents or discovers any new and useful process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter, or any new and useful improvement thereof, may obtain a patent therefor, subject to the conditions and requirements of this title.

14. Claim 9 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed invention is directed to non-statutory subject matter. Claim 9 is drawn to a computer program per se without the inclusion of the program being stored on a medium. A computer program per se is not a process, machine, manufacture, or composition of matter.
